Book Presentation Feedback

Your Name
		Dr. Bandy	CS 377

Timing:

Start of presentation		End of presentation		End of questions

Rubric:

Content	Needs Revision	Developing (4 points)	Adequate (6 points)	Good (8 points)	Excellent (10 points)
Organization	Needs Revision	Developing (4 points)	Adequate (6 points)	Good (8 points)	Excellent (10 points)
Visuals	Needs Revision	Developing (4 points)	Adequate (6 points)	Good (8 points)	Excellent (10 points)
Oral Communication	Needs Revision	Developing (4 points)	Adequate (6 points)	Good (8 points)	Excellent (10 points)
Physical Presence	Needs Revision	Developing (4 points)	Adequate (6 points)	Good (8 points)	Excellent (10 points)
				Total	____/50

Notes:

Category	Score	Description
Content	Excellent (10 points)	Detailed explanation of accurate information, key themes, arguments, and supporting evidence that demonstrates deep understanding and knowledge of the book.
	Good (8 points)	Effective explanation of accurate information, key themes, arguments, and supporting evidence that demonstrates general understanding and knowledge of the book.
	Adequate (6 points)	Adequate explanation of information, key themes, and supporting evidence with minimal incomplete or incorrect information.
Organization	Excellent (10 points)	The report flows logically from beginning to end with a strong introduction that lays the foundation, clear transitions, and a conclusion that wraps up nicely. Presentation lasts 8–12 minutes.
	Good (8 points)	The report mostly flows logically with a clear introduction, transitions, and conclusion. Generally makes good use of time with minor pacing adjustments needed.
	Adequate (6 points)	The report has an introduction and conclusion but transitions are basic or uneven, and the overall structure may be unclear.
Visual Aids	Excellent (10 points)	Visuals are readable, professional, and appropriate to the book. Relevant visuals are included without overwhelming the audience.
	Good (8 points)	Visuals are readable and mostly professional with good relevance to the report. Appropriate quantity that supports the content.
	Adequate (6 points)	Visuals are present and readable but may have minor design issues or be distracting. Quantity is somewhat appropriate.
Oral Communication	Excellent (10 points)	Speaker speaks clearly and loudly enough to be heard easily, using proper grammar, clear pronunciation, and inflections throughout. Language is professional and free from slang or distracting filler words like "um," "like," or "you know."
	Good (8 points)	Speaker speaks clearly with adequate volume and generally uses proper grammar and pronunciation. Mostly professional language with minimal filler words.
	Adequate (6 points)	Speaker is understandable but volume or clarity may be inconsistent. Some grammar issues or filler words are present, but do not seriously hinder communication.
Physical Presence	Excellent (10 points)	Speaker faces the audience and maintains eye contact. Uses appropriate gestures and purposeful movement while avoiding distracting physical mannerisms. Professional posture.
	Good (8 points)	Speaker maintains good eye contact for most of the presentation, uses helpful and appropriate gestures.
	Adequate (6 points)	Speaker attempts eye contact and uses some gestures, but may be difficult to hear or understand at times.

Descriptions for "Developing" (4 points) and "Needs Revision" (0–2 points) are available on the course website, `https://doethics.fun/read-a-book/book-presentation`